ABOUT ME

Hoonaz Afaghi, born in April 1973 in Iran is an artist engaged in various fields including painting, jewelry art, and graphic design. With a Master's degree in Graphic Design, she possesses knowledge in art and design that reflects her creative mind and unique perspective.

... and ultimately, her worldview is an expression from warp and weft of love and imagination to journeys of reality in the earthly world. The artworks are reflections of life, presented in forms and colors and lines, through fine arts with the mediums painting and jewelry art. This is the motivation for artistic creation and expansion of her artworks.

EXPERIENCE

Self-employed

Jewelry Artist

Since 2020

- Due to my strong passion and enthusiasm for figurative design, I decided to transform my designs into jewelry. This was a starting point for entering the field of jewelry design and production.

Self-employed

Painter

Since 2012

- From childhood until now, I have always been passionate about painting, and it has played a significant role in my life. Throughout these years, I have benefited from the expertise of prominent instructors and directed my painting towards modern and figurative art. Ultimately, I have participated in numerous exhibitions, both solo and group.
